HELPING OTHERS

The Sailor's Son

sailor surly wanted
asleep money weather
awoke trying broken pieces crutches getting endure twine waistcoat lame stagecoach

1. One hot day in the month of June, as a poor sailor with but one leg was going along the road, his crutch broke and fell to the ground.
2. He now had to crawl on his hands and knees to the side of the road and wait until some coach or cart came by that he might have a chance to ride.
3. The first that passed his way was a stagecoach, but the driver was a surly fellow and as he thought the poor sailor had no money to pay for a ride, he drove on and left him.
4. Soon after this, the tired sailor fell asleep upon the ground, and though a heavy shower of rain came on, still he slept. For sailors, when on board the ships, have to endure all sorts of weather.
5. When the lame sailor awoke, he found a boy's coat and waistcoat spread upon him to keep him from the rain. The boy sat by trying to mend the broken crutch with two pieces of wood and some twine.

6. "My good lad," said the sailor, "Why do you share your clothes to keep me from being wet?"
7. "Oh," said he, "I do not mind the rain, but I thought you would take cold in getting wet, when you were so tired as to fall asleep on the ground."
8. "See, I have almost mended your broken crutch and if you can lean on me and cross over to my uncle's farmhouse, I am sure he will make you a new crutch," said the boy.
9. The sailor looked at him with tears in his eyes and said, "When I went to sea, I left a little boy at home, and if I should find him as good as you are, I should be quite happy, though I have lost my leg and must go on crutches for the rest of my life."
10. "What is your son's name?" asked the boy.
11. "Thomas White, and my name is John White," said the sailor.
12. When the boy heard these names he jumped up, threw his arms around the sailor's neck and cried, "My dear, dear father... I am Thomas White, your own little boy!"
13. How great was the sailor's joy, thus to meet his own dear child after so many years at sea, and to find him so good to those who needed help!
14. Thomas had been taken care of by his uncle while his father was at sea, and the poor lame sailor found a happy home in the farmhouse of his brother.
15. And though he now had a new crutch, he kept the old one as long as he lived, and showed it to all who came to the farm as proof of the kind heart of his dear son.

Out-of-print for over 125 years, the original McGuffey's Eclectic Readers are considered educational classics. These books are world renowned for their teaching of reading through the integration of faith with learning. William Holmes McGuffey, outstanding 19th century educator and preacher, combined both of his God-given talents in the preparation of these early textbooks. Millions of copies were sold in their original Christ-centered form. The character of our Nation was molded in an upright manner through the repeated use of these textbooks over several generations.

In order to capture the true spirit of the original McGuffey's Eclectic Readers, no major content changes have been made. While this edition of the authentic Readers is being presented in a more easily readable form, the stories, poems, and pictures appear as they did in the first edition. Slight changes have taken place for the sake of clarification. However, no changes have been made in editorial content.

This boxed set includes:

- Eclectic Primer
- Eclectic Progressive Speller
- Eclectic First Reader
- Eclectic Pictorial Primer
- Eclectic Second Reader
- Eclectic Third Reader
- Eclectic Fourth Reader
- Softcover Parent/Teacher Guide

Period toys for display, Cloth dolls (primitive), marbles etc.

Dunce Cap (used primarily in early New England) debatable use elsewhere. Found in many schoolhouses as a fun artifact.)

Antique Rewards of Merit (for show only, often found among antique post cards in shops or on Ebay...don't pay fortunes for them...around $2 each is fair.)
Teachers gave them as rewards.

NOTES:

Bookshelf Suggestion- You could not find a more beautifully crafted wood shelf than this...made by the Amish in South Central Kentucky. I looked everywhere and found it on ETSY! It is assembled with pegs that you just insert into the side (2 minutes) Hint: knock them all the way down even with the shelf). Amazing and gorgeous construction. You can see our photo above.
