

~ AUTHOR TALK ~

SUNDAY, JUNE 21 • 6:30 PM

Geneva native

CHARLES BURRALL

“From a One-Room Schoolhouse to Captured by the Russians”

HOBART & WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGES
Scandling Center • 300 Pulteney St., Geneva

The author, who grew up in Geneva, will recount his experience taken hostage by the Soviet Union along with other fishing boat crew members during the Cold War, and reflect upon the four years he was educated in Geneva’s last one-room schoolhouse, the Glass Factory Bay School, now a residence.

CO-SPONSORS

Country School Association of America

Historic
GENEVA

Scan to download this flier

The talk is the keynote address for a national conference on preservation of historic rural schoolhouses. In conjunction with the conference, four area schoolhouses will be open to the public for visitation.

ONE-ROOM SCHOOLHOUSE “OPEN HOUSE” TOUR

SUNDAY, JUNE 21 • 1-4 PM

ANSLEY SCHOOLHOUSE
4921 County Road 6, Geneva

BENTON SCHOOLHOUSE
2390 Baldwin Road, Penn Yan

MIDLAKES SCHOOLHOUSE
1510 NY-488, Clifton Springs

OVERACKERS CORNERS SCHOOLHOUSE
5658 Vine Valley Road, Rushville

